

Ford Fusion 1.6 Titanium 5dr | Sep 2011
- LOW MILEAGE

£2,990

The Ford Fusion is based on the Fiesta but aims to offer a more practical car with some SUV-like styling. It has taller sides than a Fiesta and a higher set driving position, though this is no lofty 4x4. Some buyers like it for the ease of entry and exit. Its raised driving position is comfortable and plenty of owners praise it for how easy it is to get in and out of without having contort their bodies. The broad windscreen gives a good view ahead and also imparts a sense of space and airiness to the cabin. Like the Fiesta, there's a good choice of engines and trims and, as it's a Ford of the modern generation, it rides and handles with flair too.
