The time has come to reluctantly pass on my pride and joy to a new custodian. My 350SL was registered in September 2003 and I have had the pleasure of owning it for the last 11 years. I bought the car from a friend who had badged the car as an SL55 which I have not touched. The service history had been lost when I bought the car but I have a file/folder of receipts and MOTs going back to 2011. There are currently 66,250 miles on the car and the current MOT expires on 12th April 2025. The car has heated memory seats, keyless go, optional wind deflector, AMG alloys refurbished recently and all the usual toys. I have both keys.

I have stored the car in a dehumidified garage since I owned it with the auxilliary battery on a trickle charger.

The car has been on sorn for some time now and arrangements will have to be made to facilitate test drives which will only be done for serious buyers.

The personal number plate in the photos has now been removed and the car is back to its original plate RX53AHJ
