2002 BMW 320ci (2.2 six cylinder petrol) AUTOMATIC only 2, mature, long term keepers from new 140,000 miles - just over 6000 miles a year (just for a bit of perspective)

literally a folder full of service history
2 keys, book pack, previous MOT's, glove box torch
MOT - 18th May 2025
HPI clear

In a world of small capacity turbo charged engines this straight six cylinder is unapologetically old fashioned but joyously refreshing for it, and the exact reason why these old barges from yesteryear are going up in value, they simply aren't made anymore. The refined noise from the naturally aspirated lump, coupled with the ahead of its time build quality, still make this a luxury driver.

M sport models with half the miles are currently valued and on sale at 3 times the price of this. I feel this is not only a fair representation of quality, market price but also value for money.
