The Mitsubishi ASX is a compact SUV with lots of kit as standard, good looks and high visibility all of which makes it ideal for families looking for a high-riding car. This is a class full of talented rivals, though, so it has to work hard to earn its stripes. Everything's well screwed together, and the Mitsubishi ASX feels like it'll stand the test of time. We love the ASX's styling - it's purposeful and, on cars with all-wheel-drive, has the go-anywhere ability to back up the looks. We also like the fact that most models (and both trims in the newer ASX) are well-equipped as standard. As a rugged and utilitarian compact family SUV, it does the job well, and it's certainly a very capable machine. Fusco Vehicle Sales - North Down's largest used car dealership.
