Hi everyone. For sale is a great example of Volvo XC40 SUV. It has 2 keys, service history, only one previous owner. Everything is working as it's supposed to. 2 charging cables. It's Ultimate dark so it's a top of the range model including blind spot, electric windows, tinted rear windows, heated front windscreen, electric seats, heated seats, heated steering wheel, adaptive cruise control, 360 camera, and many more. The damage was to passenger side. No airbags or seatbelts has been deployed. This car retails value is around £32k so get yourself a bargain. Professionally repaired with genuine parts only. Used every day so the mileage will slightly increase. Any inspection more than welcome.
