

Toyota GT 86 2.0 D-4S 2dr | 2013

£8,475 O.N.O

Owned this GT86 for the last three years. I absolutely love how these cars drive, being the second one I've owned. This one is in the best colour, pearlescent white and although the milage may be high, she drives beautifully. Most 86's on the market sub £10k usually have an insurance category attached to them, this one has a clean bill of health.

Good points:

Mot'd till May 25
Recent rear tyres and brake pads
Recent oil change with Millers
Valve recall has been carried out with new clutch at 95k miles
Upgraded led headlights
Comes with second set of standard rims
Nice clean interior

Bad points:

Two small chips on windscreen
Couple of small dents on rear quarter panel
Back bumper has a bit of a scrape

Please bear in mind that this car is 11 years old but is still very presentable and turns heads.

Viewing welcome but no test pilots or trade ins.
