The SportDesign package retains the classic contours of the Boxster whilst refining aerodynamics and enhancing styling for an even more dynamic look.

It incorporates lip spoiler elements for the front apron, a revised rear apron with diffuser design, sports exhaust and an automatically extending rear spoiler designed according to the same slotted wing principle as the 911 Turbo.

The Basalt black metallic paintwork is in fabulous condition all round and all panels and shut lines are as they should be with hardly any blemishes to note.

Inside, the full leather interior is immaculate as are the carpets and all switches and buttons work as they should.

Mechanically this example drives tremendously well. The exhaust note is superb, it pulls as it should and the 6 speed manual gearbox is tight and precise.
