LOW MILES, SAT NAV, AUTOMATIC, £ 5K+ ADDITIONAL EXTRAS

Jaguar has taken what was good about the old car: its blend of confidence-inspiring handling and a cossetting ride, theatrical interior and individual style and improved on all those. It's also addressed the lack of space and outdated infotainment to become class best in the former and competitive in the latter. There's also Jaguar's highly-praised 2.0-litre diesel under the bonnet. It's the Ingenium four-cylinder diesel first seen in the smaller XE, and is available with the same choice of 161bhp or 178bhp power outputs. There is also the more potent version in racy R-Sport guise. Fusco Vehicle Sales - North Down's largest used car dealership.
