The 2022 Ford Puma is a compact crossover that combines sporty handling with a practical design, offering a modern and stylish option in the subcompact SUV segment. With its bold front grille, sharp lines, and a raised stance that contributes to its athletic appearance. Inside, the cabin is designed with comfort and convenience in mind, offering a well-crafted dashboard and a range of tech features, including a user-friendly infotainment system with Apple CarPlay and Android Auto integration. Under the hood, the 2022 Ford Puma is powered by a selection of efficient engines, offering performance with fuel economy. The car delivers a smooth and responsive driving experience, enhanced by its precise steering and well-tuned suspension, making it agile on both road and track. The boot space is generous for its class, with additional storage capacity thanks to the Ford "MegaBox" - a deep, versatile compartment that adds practicality. Safety is a key feature, with the Puma equipped with a range of driver assistance systems, such as lane-keeping assist, adaptive cruise control, and blind spot monitoring. Overall, the 2022 Ford Puma stands out for its combination of style, performance, and practicality, making it an appealing choice for those seeking a small SUV with a dynamic edge. Standard features on this car include Keyless entry and power start button, Sport suspension, Speed sign recognition, Lane keeping aid with lane departure warning, Wireless charging pad and much much more.
