I am reluctantly selling my California due to a new house purchase. Owned since Sept 23 to tour the West Coast of Ireland, unfortunately we only managed 3 very short weekend trips away.

This is very highly December 2020 VW dealer spec Coast, intended to be a demo, then covid hit and the van sat until the first buyer bought it as a new vehicle some months later. It comes with all the standard Coast packages of course but the list of extras almost takes it to Ocean levels. These include

- * Digital Cockpit and driver alert system
- * LED head and tail lights
- * Comfort Lighting Package (extra internal lights)
- * Shower attachment
- * Rear camera
- * Parking assist
- * Heated front seats
- * VW rubber mats in cab (over carpets)
- * VW comfort mattress with bed extension
- * Storage net in roof bed access opening
- * Second drawer in bench seat
- * Navigation, streaming & internet
- * Adapt cruise control
- * Tailgate step protector/cover
- * Driver & passenger wind deflectors
- * VW California seat covers from new
- * Bandrup carpet liners in bench drawer & rear boot space
- * Sidestep carpets
- * Sink basin with chopping board inset
