The SEAT ATECA 1.5 TSI EVO Xperience with a DSG automatic transmission delivers a balanced driving experience, combining efficiency and performance. This petrol-powered model is well-respected for its responsive handling and smooth ride, making it an excellent choice for both urban and rural settings. The inclusion of features such as SEAT's drive profile selector allows drivers to customise the driving experience with Normal, Sport, Eco, and Individual modes, enhancing the vehicle's adaptability to varying road conditions. The striking white paint colour is complemented by the black wheel arch surrounds and body-colour bumpers, offering a sleek and cohesive exterior. Chrome accents on the front grille, roof rails, and side window trim add a touch of sophistication, while the dark-tinted rear windows provide both privacy and a modern aesthetic. LED headlamps and fog lamps with a cornering function ensure optimal visibility, and the dynamic rear indicators add a contemporary flair. Inside, the ATECA is designed with comfort and practicality in mind. The Dinamica upholstery with front comfort seats, dual-zone climate control, and a digital cockpit create a relaxed and connected atmosphere for all passengers. The vehicle boasts advanced technology, including a rear-view camera, self-parking functionality, and full smartphone integration, both wired and wireless, ensuring convenience and safety on every journey. The vehicle's safety features, such as multiple airbags, a tyre pressure monitoring system, and keyless entry, provide peace of mind for drivers and passengers alike.
