The Ford KUGA 1. 5 EcoBoost ST-Line X is a vehicle that combines performance with practicality, ideal for those seeking a reliable and efficient drive. This petrol-powered model with a manual transmission offers a robust and responsive driving experience, ensuring you'll enjoy every journey. The inclusion of key features such as the Quickclear heated windscreen and enhanced active park assist makes commuting and city driving more convenient and stress-free. Styled in a striking white, the Ford KUGA stands out with its sleek body colour bumpers and aerodynamic body styling kit, including side skirts, door claddings, and wheel arches. Its black roof rails provide additional versatility for transporting larger items, while the twin exhaust pipes add a sporty edge to its aesthetic. The electric panoramic glass sunroof and automatic halogen headlights with LED daytime running lights enhance the vehicle's exterior appeal and functionality. Inside, the KUGA boasts Dinamica and leather upholstery, providing a luxurious feel, complemented by the sports-style front seats and leather steering wheel with red stitching. Notable features include heated front seats, dual electronic automatic temperature control, and a 10-way power adjustable driver's seat, ensuring maximum comfort for all passengers. Safety and security are also top priorities, with features like the Intelligent Protection System, tyre pressure monitoring, and Thatcham Cat. 1 alarm providing peace of mind. The vehicle's practicality is further enhanced by a 60/40 split-folding rear seat configuration and a spacious boot area with tie-down hooks, ensuring ample space for all your needs.
